DETAILED ACTION

- I. Due to newly discovered issues, prosecution of this case has been re-opened.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

- II. Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 USC § 112 because it is not clear whether Independent Claims 1, 5, 10, 16, and 24 refer to an apparatus or a method. The rationale for this rejection can be found in MPEP 2173.05(p)(II), which states:

“A single claim which claims both an apparatus and the method steps of using the apparatus is indefinite under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. In Ex parte Lyell, 17 USPQ2d 1548 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1990), a claim directed to an automatic transmission workstand and the method steps of using it was held to be ambiguous and properly rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

Such claims should also be rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 based on the theory that the claim is directed to neither a “process” nor a “machine,” but rather embraces or overlaps two different statutory classes of invention set forth in 35 U.S.C. 101 which is drafted so as to set forth the statutory classes of invention in the alternative only. Id. at 1551.”

Accordingly, Claims 1, 5, 10, 16, and 24 recite an apparatus comprising a memory and processor. However, the processor then performs steps in a method. Therefore, as discussed under Ex Parte Lyell, the referenced claims are rendered indefinite because each claims an apparatus and method steps.

[Note: All claims which depend from said Independent Claims (1-26) are rejected because they depend from rejected Independent Claims 1, 5, 10, 16, and 24.]

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

III. Claims 1, 5, 10, 16, and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because neither claim is clearly directed toward a “process” or “machine.” The same rationale and text used under the 112 rejection above is applied here as well.

[Note: All claims which depend from said Independent Claims (1-26) are rejected because they depend from rejected Independent Claims 1, 5, 10, 16, and 24.]

Allowable Subject Matter

IV. Claims 27, 28, 30-34, and 36-40 are hereby allowed. The reasons for allowance are set forth as follows. The prior art of record fails to anticipate or render obvious the language of Claims 27 and 34 which recites:

“...upon completion of selecting the positive examples, determining a particular value of a given feature in feature space, which particular value characterizes a significant subset of the positive examples, the selecting of the set of negative examples being such that a significant subset of the negative examples has a selected value responsive to the particular value of a given feature in feature space.”
